Introduction to today's Scripture Readings

The first reading - Death, the one reality that faces every single one of us, is not God's doing and not God's will. The Lord has created us for eternity.

The second reading - Paul is fundraising for his mission! He does not subscribe to the genteel notion that what we do with our resources has nothing to do with our faith.

The Gospel - A little girl is restored to her family. A woman who has been ill for years is restored to health and to community. Jesus, our Saviour, is our restorer

The Absence of Children

Children are sometimes described as the 'fruits of love'. For those who long to love and share their lives with children, childlessness is a source of real pain and anguish. The scriptures disclose numerous situations where the desire for descendants, as well as the social pressure on women or the family to produce children, is intense. The story of Hannah and Elkanah (Samuel 1:2-8,20) shows how their deep and genuine feelings of love for one another managed to survive this challenge to their marriage. Despite the pain and frustration of their situation they persevered and their patience was finally rewarded.

Some couples are unable to have children. We know this can be a cause of real suffering for them. At the same time, we know that 'marriage was not instituted solely for the procreation of children...Even in cases where, despite the intense desire of the spouses there are no children, marriage still retains its character of being a whole manner and communion of life, and preserves its value and indissolubility.'

Joy of love Amoris Laetitia, 178

Prayer

Creator God, you have said that it's not good to be alone and we praise you for the happiness we have found in each other.

In the absence of children let us find deep fulfilment in our love. As we await your blessing, let us use our creative gifts in ways that bring life to others and praise to you.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
